furnishing your new home is very exciting yet it requires some careful consideration if you are to ultimately enjoy living there.

Your choice of furniture is very personal and depends on many factors including individual taste, budgetary constraints and the size of your home.

If you have bought a property in Spain to use as a holiday home occasionally throughout the year then your furniture choice should reflect this. A rental property on the other hand will require hardwearing furniture that will withstand lots of wear and tear and is also competitively priced.

With so many furniture suppliers and stores in Spain you would need to spend a long time researching in order to find the ideal furniture for your new home. Thankfully we have already done all the hard work for you and have a list of reputable furniture suppliers, shops and interior designers available locally.

So whether you have an extremely tight budget or can afford to be extravagant and want to look for something particular, with our endless list of contacts we can easily help you find the perfect solution.

Style of your new home

One of the first things you will need to decide is how you want your home to look i.e. is there a particular style that you like?

Do you favour a more traditional Spanish feel with lots of dark wood and classic furniture pieces, perhaps colonial style furniture is more to your liking or the popular contemporary, minimalist style with lots of clean, sleek lines and plenty of space?

Perhaps you haven't one particular style in mind but you like bright, lively colours? Perhaps subdued earthy tones take your fancy or maybe you simply want a cosy home that is comfortable and functional?

Do some research

To find out more about what you like, it can be a good idea to buy some interior design magazines. They will give you plenty of ideas regarding the style of furniture, colour scheme and complementary decoration that you might like. Perhaps homes of friends and relatives are furnished in a style that you admire? Doing a little research makes it easier when it comes to picking individual pieces of furniture.
